

CENTER FOR SELF GOVERNANCE

A Republic, if YOU can keep it!

Self-governance is exercising individual liberty, personal responsibility, and civic authority for the control of instituted government.

Can you keep the balance?

"If you want an effective, professional, step-by-step method of taking back your country, this is the way to do it. They will teach you how to stop wasting your time and energy on doing the wrong things. You will become a powerful, respected agent for change." - Anita Christy, GilbertWatch.com

"I know of no safe depository of the ultimate powers of the society, but the people themselves." Thomas Jefferson

All political power is inherent in the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed, and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.

~ Section 2, Arizona Constitution

On their first attempts at passing or stopping legislation or electing or defeating candidates, our graduates have had:

100% Success Rate at a Local Level

85% Success Rate at a State Level

20% Success Rate at a Federal Level

(what can we say, Washington is REALLY broken.)
